

SUZUKI STRINGS SUPPLY LIST

Essentials – To bring to the first lesson:

1. A properly sized violin, viola, or cello (Important: consult with teacher to size your child)
2. Rosin (Hill's dark or light is best, but you can find some brands for as little as $2.50 a cake)
3. Suzuki Tape or CD, Volume 1 of the instrument studied (Suzuki Book 1 also recommended)
4. Binder/Folder to store all notes, practice records, handouts and music
5. A foam shoulder rest and rubber bands, or a *Kun* shoulder rest or similar contoured shoulder rest

Optional, but recommended

1. Spare A & E string.
2. Violin Pitch-pipe (for tuning) or an inexpensive electronic chromatic tuner (recommended for the parent who thinks he's tone-deaf)
3. Suzuki Tape or CD, Volumes 2, 3, and 4
4. For students in Book 2 and beyond: a metronome
5. Folding music stand for home use and later for orchestra

Note: Before you purchase an instrument

Prices for low-end student violins have come down recently--but not all these instruments have adequate tone, stay in tune, or play easily. Most of the catalogue companies listed above will allow you to try several instruments and ship back whichever your teacher disapproves.
